

CODE BLUE DRILL QUIZ

<---Type your Name

1. What steps should you take if you are first on the scene of an unresponsive patient?

Check Breathing

Check Pulse

Panic

Call for help/push the code button

All the Above

2. When is CPR indicated?

Patient has a pulse but is not breathing

Patient is breathing has a pulse

Patient does not have a pulse and is not breathing

3. The Crash Cart is located:

In the OR

In the supply closet

In PACU

In the Anesthesia Office

4. CPR has started, IV has been established: What is the first medication to administer for pulseless, breathless adult patient?

Epi

Amiodarone

Zantac

Versed

CODE BLUE DRILL QUIZ

5. What is the purpose of the role cards on the crash cart in a code?

Drive you crazy

Ensure everyone present has a role, knows their role and follows their role

Take up space on crash cart

To confuse staff

6. What constitutes high quality CPR?

Chest Compression rate

Chest Compression depth

Chest recoil

All of these above

7. The Crash Cart has an Oxygen tank, back board, portable suction machine and Ambu bag.

True

False

8. Why is the Crash Cart checked Mon-Friday?

To insure immediate availability of emergency drugs and supplies.

Because the Periop Nurses need something to do.

This is the responsibility of the OR nurses

We do not check the crash cart inventory every weekday.

9. What are the 3 areas in an adult to obtain IO access with the Arrow EZ-IO?

Proximal humerus, proximal tibia, distal femur

Proximal humerus, proximal tibia, distal tibia

CODE BLUE DRILL QUIZ

10. What would be one contradiction of why you would not use the Arrow EZ IO in an area?

Fracture in target bone or excessive tissue (obesity)

They are right-handed or left-handed

Its cloudy instead of sunny

Because you are too busy

11. To confirm catheter placement which of the following bodily fluids will you find when you aspirate?

Blood

Tissue

Bone Marrow

Saline